

LegalAid ARTICLING STUDENTS SASKATCHEWAN

Legal Aid Saskatchewan has two Articling Student positions available for the 2019/20 period of articles. The positions will be based in the following Legal Aid Area Offices:

*Regina City
Meadow Lake*

Please advise as to which location(s) you are applying.

Under the direction of the respective principals, the Student-at-Law will have an opportunity to complete his/her articles through exposure to adult/youth criminal law and family law. The term of articles would be for a one-year period.

Note: The position in the Meadow Lake Area Office includes travel in small aircraft to northern communities.

We encourage applications from people of Aboriginal ancestry, persons of a visible minority group, persons with disabilities and women seeking management and non-traditional roles. Legal Aid Saskatchewan has an employment equity program approved by the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission.
