

LEGAL DIRECTOR

Legal Aid Saskatchewan is seeking an individual to join its management team as the Legal Director of the Moose Jaw Area Office to commence in June 2018. The successful candidate, under the supervision of the Chief Executive Officer, will manage the Area Office, inclusive of administrative activities and supervision of five staff, as well as provide legal services to eligible clients. As part of the management team, the Legal Director will be involved in setting and carrying out policy and will participate in strategic and operational endeavours.

The ideal candidate will have some management or supervisory experience and a minimum of five years of experience in litigation or the general practice of law, preferably in criminal and family law and be eligible for membership in the Law Society of Saskatchewan.

This is a great opportunity for a person with strong interpersonal skills who wants to be part of a collegial team that promotes a collaborative and respectful working environment. If you are looking for a challenge, have a sense of humour and the ability to work well with and lead others, this position will appeal to you.

The salary range for the position is $121,067 to $148,604 per annum, based on experience. There is a comprehensive benefits package inclusive of a pension plan. The incumbent is entitled to 6 weeks off per annum and 13 Statutory Holidays.

We encourage applications from people of Aboriginal ancestry, of visible minority groups, with disabilities and women seeking management and non-traditional roles. Legal Aid Saskatchewan has an employment equity program approved by the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission.

To explore this opportunity, we encourage you to send your resumé before March 16, 2018 to:
