

LAWYER

Our mission at Legal Aid Saskatchewan is to help achieve fair, balanced, and respectful justice for people in Saskatchewan by providing accessible and professional legal services in criminal and family law using a staff-based model.

Legal Aid Saskatchewan is accepting applications from motivated and energetic Lawyers with a minimum of 2 years' experience in criminal and family law to fill a permanent lawyer position at the Meadow Lake Area Office to practise in the areas of adult/youth criminal and family law.

This is a great opportunity for lawyers who want to be part of a collegial team that promotes a collaborative and respectful working environment.

Benefits include a salary range for the position of $79,750 to $143,920 per annum; a comprehensive benefits package inclusive of a pension plan [for permanent positions]; entitlement of 6 weeks off per annum and 13 Statutory Holidays [prorated for term positions]. The position is within the Union.

Applicants should be Lawyers eligible to practice in Saskatchewan.

We encourage applications from people of Aboriginal ancestry, persons of a visible minority group, persons with disabilities and women seeking management and non-traditional roles. Legal Aid Saskatchewan has an employment equity program approved by the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission.

To explore this opportunity, we encourage qualified applicants to submit their resumé and cover letter (including references) clearly demonstrating how you meet the education and experience criteria listed. Submissions must be received before January 26, 2021 at:
