A Message from the CEO

Meaningful Progress: Completing Legal Aid Saskatchewan's 2022–2025 Strategic Plan

As we conclude our 2022–2025 strategic plan, I am proud to reflect on a period of significant growth, innovation and transformation at Legal Aid Saskatchewan. Guided by four strategic priorities: Client-Centered Experience; Champions for Access to Justice; Purpose-Driven Teams Producing Exceptional Outcomes; and Accountable and Responsive Stewards, we have strengthened our ability to meet the evolving legal needs of Saskatchewan residents while building a more resilient and responsive organization.

Client-Centered Experience

Over the past five years, we have transformed the way our clients access and experience our services. A comprehensive review of our intake processes saw improvements for those seeking assistance. Enhancements to the Brydges line strengthened the support available to individuals at critical moments within the justice system.

We expanded services to address unmet legal needs through initiatives such as Family Law Mediation, Child Protection Court Duty Counsel, and the Rapid Resolution Remand program. Our Family Law Early Intervention Pilot Project demonstrates the value of providing timely assistance before legal issues escalate.

A cornerstone of our work has been advancing reconciliation and culturally responsive service delivery. We successfully completed Phase I of our Reconciliation Action Plan and launched Phase II, while expanding Gladue services and providing trauma-informed, cultural competency, and Gladue training to staff throughout the organization. We also contributed to the advancement of Saskatchewan's Indigenous Provincial Court and strengthened partnerships supporting innovative justice initiatives, including Domestic Violence Court and Drug Treatment Court in North Battleford, Onion Lake First Nation justice initiatives, and a Memorandum of Understanding with the Federal Crown and Pasqua First Nation.

Champions for Access to Justice

Throughout the strategic plan period, Legal Aid Saskatchewan strengthened its role as a leading advocate for access to justice. We launched a new brand identity and logo that better reflects our purpose and commitment to serving Saskatchewan communities.

In 2024, we celebrated our 50th anniversary with a province-wide recognition campaign, gala event, and commemorative book launch, highlighting five decades of service and impact. We expanded alternative dispute resolution capacity through mediation training and enhanced our Gladue services to better support Indigenous clients navigating the justice system.

Through our One Hoop review and Reconciliation Action Plan initiatives, we deepened relationships with Indigenous rights holders and community-based organizations serving Indigenous, racialized and mental health populations. These partnerships continue to inform our work and strengthen access to culturally appropriate legal services.

Purpose-Driven Teams Producing Exceptional Outcomes

Our people remain our greatest strength. During this strategic plan cycle, we focused on creating an engaged, purpose-driven and inclusive workplace. These efforts were recognized externally through our designation as a Best Place to Work in Canada in 2023 and Saskatchewan's Top Employer for 2024, 2025 and 2026.

We made substantial progress in addressing lawyer recruitment and retention through salary modernization, achieving compensation levels that were better aligned with market comparators. Staff engagement survey results continued to improve throughout the plan period, reflecting investments in leadership development, communication and employee engagement initiatives such as Learn to Lead, Town Halls and Lunch and Learn sessions.

I am so incredibly proud of the successes this organization has achieved through our shared commitment, and incredible teamwork over the past five years of my tenure and I look forward to seeing what we achieve together over the next five years, with our refined strategic plan.

In closing, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to everyone who contributes to the success of our organization. I am especially thankful to the Commission for its ongoing guidance, support and commitment to our mission. My appreciation also goes to the Senior Leadership Team for their strategic vision, dedication and unwavering leadership, and to our management team for their commitment to supporting our people and fostering a positive and collaborative workplace culture.

I would also like to recognize our staff lawyers, administrative professionals and all employees across the organization. Their expertise, professionalism and dedication to serving our clients are the foundation of everything we accomplish. The achievements highlighted throughout this report are a direct result of their hard work and commitment.

Together, we continue to strengthen access to justice and make a meaningful difference in the lives of those we serve. I am proud of what we have accomplished this year and look forward to the opportunities and challenges ahead.

With appreciation,

Jayne Mallin
Chief Executive Officer

Organizational Profile

Services

Full legal services are provided in adult and youth criminal matters and family law to financially eligible clients if the matter falls within Legal Aid Saskatchewan's range of service and has a reasonable prospect of being resolved. Duty counsel services are provided to in-custody clients, regardless of financial status, at all 74 Provincial Courthouses and circuit points. Legal advice through the Brydges Line is available to those who are arrested or detained, regardless of financial status. Summary advice and information may be provided to anyone by a Legal Aid Saskatchewan lawyer about a wide range of matters if it involves no more than a brief interview or phone call.

Financial Eligibility

Applicants are financially eligible for service if:

- they are receiving income from Social Assistance, Band Assistance or the Saskatchewan Assured Income for Disability programs; or
- their financial resources are at Social Assistance levels; or
- the costs of obtaining the services from a private lawyer would reduce their financial resources to Social Assistance levels.

Staff Profile

Legal Aid Saskatchewan uses a staff lawyer model for providing legal services to most of its clients. In 2025-2026, staff lawyers handled 83% of full-services cases. Private bar lawyers handled the remainder, usually due to conflict of interest from past service or staff vacancies.

As of March 31, 2026, Legal Aid Saskatchewan had 188 staff positions located in 14 offices throughout the province. LAS has a unionized workplace, with 85.6% of staff represented by CUPE Local 1949. Managers and out-of-scope staff comprise the remaining 14.4%.

LAS is committed to hiring practices that will assist our organization in meeting the employment equity goals set by the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission (SHRC) as follows:

SHRC Desired Employment Profile	LAS Employment Profile (2025-2026)
15.2% Self-declared Indigenous People	14.9% Self-declared Indigenous People

Strategic Priorities Report

Client-Centered Experience

Developing and fostering a client-centered experience is a key strategy in supporting our vision of inclusive, responsive and equitable justice in Saskatchewan.

Therapeutic Court Navigator Supports Complex Needs of Clients

The Therapeutic Court Navigator role is part of a three-year pilot project funded by the Law Foundation of Saskatchewan. Through this initiative, Legal Aid Saskatchewan has expanded its service model by integrating social work support alongside lawyers and other staff to better serve clients involved in Mental Health Strategy, Domestic Violence Court and other therapeutic court settings as capacity allows.

During the 2025–26 fiscal year, the Therapeutic Court Navigator played a critical role in supporting clients and enhancing access to therapeutic court services. Between April and December 2025, the Navigator served clients in 109 eligible matters and communicated eligibility decisions in more than 70 cases where individuals did not meet service criteria or where solicitor-client relationships had broken down.

A key responsibility of the role involved documenting and monitoring community support and treatment plans for clients participating in Mental Health Strategy (MHS) and Domestic Violence Court (DVC) matters. This included regular communication with housing providers, probation services, treatment programs and other community partners. Client progress was tracked and incorporated into reports provided to the court.

The Navigator also supported clients in identifying and documenting Gladue factors, often working through the Gladue submission guide in a less time-pressured environment than legal consultations allow. This client-centred approach enabled deeper exploration of personal histories and experiences, with summaries provided to counsel for presentation to the court.

As the primary point of contact for many clients, the Navigator managed appointments, conducted preliminary reviews of disclosure materials, identified key issues and prepared notes for lawyers. The role provided consistent, accessible support, helping clients navigate both the court process and connections to community resources.

As the pilot enters its final year, evaluation efforts will focus on both quantitative and qualitative measures of success. Quantitative indicators will include the Navigator's impact on therapeutic court capacity, the ability to support a greater number of matters, reductions in lawyer time spent on non-legal client support and rates of successful program completion. Qualitative evaluation will continue through client, partner and stakeholder feedback.

Reconciliation Action Plan Under Development

Legal Aid Saskatchewan (LAS) remains committed to advancing reconciliation by strengthening relationships with Indigenous communities and promoting inclusive access to justice for First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples across the province. To support this commitment, LAS has partnered with One Hoop, an Indigenous consulting agency, to develop a comprehensive Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) that will guide organizational decision-making and service delivery.

During the reporting period, LAS continued the Rightsholder Engagement phase of the project, including outreach to community partners, consultations with legal service leaders, a provincial scan to identify key Indigenous rights holders and stakeholders, and the establishment of an internal staff advisory committee. LAS is currently reviewing and refining One Hoop's recommendations and developing concrete actions, timelines, performance measures and accountability frameworks for implementation.

To support the final stages of the RAP and its long-term success, LAS has recruited a Director of Indigenous Services and Relations. This new leadership role will help advance reconciliation efforts, strengthen partnerships with Indigenous communities, and improve access to culturally responsive legal services throughout Saskatchewan.

Family Law and Mediation Services Pilot

Legal Aid Saskatchewan launched a year-long Family Law and Mediation Services pilot in Saskatoon that focuses on enhancing service delivery through an early intervention model that supports client-centred, culturally responsive and efficient legal services.

The initiative recognizes that family law services require dedicated attention to ensure they continue to evolve in response to client needs. By establishing a single point of accountability for family law services in Saskatoon and providing oversight of mediation services across the province, the pilot creates opportunities for strategic service improvements and consistent practice standards.

A significant component of the project is the evaluation of Legal Aid Saskatchewan's in-house mediation program. Since mediation became mandatory in Saskatchewan in 2022, demand for services has increased alongside the growth of the organization's mediator roster. The pilot will collect and analyze data to assess program effectiveness, support a value-for-money review, and inform future decisions regarding mediation service delivery. This work will also contribute to the development of standardized triage procedures and practice directives.

Early results from a preliminary pilot demonstrated that lawyer-led triage can improve efficiency by identifying non-meritorious matters at the application stage and directing clients to the most appropriate resolution pathway.

Drug Treatment Court

Legal Aid Saskatchewan has been an integral partner in the advocacy for and the implementation of a Drug Treatment Court for the Battlefords area. In June 2025, the first sitting of drug treatment court was held in North Battleford Provincial Court. By the end of the 2025-2026 fiscal year, the program was operating at maximum capacity. The program, an expansion of the existing drug treatment courts in Regina and Moose Jaw, serves the Battlefords and west central Saskatchewan. The first round of graduates is expected in 2026.

Supporting Indigenous Clients with the Gladue Submission Guide

With recommendations from stakeholder consultations, client feedback, Elders and courtroom use the Legal Aid Saskatchewan Gladue Submission Guide has been enhanced to improved readability, accessibility and relevance for Indigenous clients. Positive feedback has been gathered from staff lawyers, private bar counsel, and community justice groups on the guide's effectiveness in supporting Indigenous clients navigating the court system.

"I have been a Staff Lawyer in Moose Jaw for 18 years, and in that time, I cannot name an innovation that has improved my ability to advocate for clients more than the Gladue Submission Guide. The Guide has become a tool that I turn to for all my Indigenous clients. Of course, the client's experience with the Guide is more important than the lawyer's experience. However, from my perspective it has enabled me to be a better advocate for at least three reasons.

Firstly, the Guide aids my ability to get Gladue submissions before the Court and therefore to advocate more effectively for the client. Anecdotally, I have found that using the Guide both reduces my workload and provides a better result than interviewing clients about their Gladue experiences and then reciting those for the Court.

Secondly, the Guide is always well received by our Judges and Justices. Time and time again, the Court expresses gratitude to the client for the time and effort taken to complete the Guide and thereby provides the Court with information needed to thoughtfully consider Gladue factors in that person's life. Judges often comment on the fact that the Guide tells the client's story in their own words, which is far more meaningful and authentic than a lawyer talking about another person's experience.

Lastly, the Guide serves as a healing tool that the client can use after court is over to continue their healing journey. It can also be shared with an elder or counsellor to begin a conversation about past traumas and the impact of the trauma in one's life. Many clients have told me that completing the Guide was the first time they had told their story and started to make connections between their trauma and their offending. This benefits both offenders and their communities and has the potential to reduce recidivism. In this way, the Guide has the potential to connect clients with supports and bring healing to their families and communities even after the Court matter is concluded." – Legal Aid Saskatchewan Staff Lawyer, Suzanne Lalonde

Legal Aid Saskatchewan will continue to share the guide across its networks and promote it as a valuable healing resource for clients.

Immigration and Refugee Services

Legal Aid Saskatchewan is expanding its scope of services to include Immigration and Refugee Law, marking a significant step forward in our commitment to inclusive, responsive and equitable justice. In 2025–2026, federal funding enabled LAS to complete a province-wide situational assessment of immigration and refugee legal needs in Saskatchewan. The assessment confirmed a clear access-to-justice gap: Saskatchewan was one of only two provinces not receiving dedicated federal funding for immigration and refugee legal aid; demand for services was growing and unmet; and existing community providers, including settlement agencies and legal clinics, were operating without dedicated funding and beyond available capacity. The report also identified increasing refugee claims, humanitarian and compassionate applications, removals and related legal needs, while noting that many individuals could not access qualified legal assistance because of cost, limited service availability or lack of specialized capacity.

Building on this evidence, LAS submitted a business case to the federal government and was successful in securing funding to develop and deliver immigration and refugee services through March 2028. This investment will support the creation of a dedicated Immigration and Refugee Services team, including a director, staff lawyer and two support positions such as regulated immigration consultants or legal assistants, supplemented where needed by private bar and community partners.

As LAS prepares to launch these services in 2026, we are working with service providers, settlement agencies and justice partners to build a collaborative, high-quality and cost-effective model that responds to Saskatchewan's changing demographics and strengthens access to justice for immigrants and refugees across the province. This initiative is a major achievement under our strategic priority of ensuring that clients experience inclusive justice.

The following operational metrics support our commitment to cultivating a client-centered experience.

Application Centre intake calls

First impressions matter, and considerable effort has been directed toward enhancing the initial experience of prospective clients. Improvements at the intake stage have been substantial and are clearly reflected in the following performance data. Call volumes increased during the year, with Eligibility Officers successfully handling a greater number of calls. At the same time, fewer callers experienced disconnections, and wait times decreased. These results demonstrate meaningful gains in both service accessibility and operational efficiency, ensuring more clients receive timely support when they first reach out to Legal Aid Saskatchewan.

	2025-2026	2024-2025	2023-2024
Total call received	43,464	37,132	37,433
Calls disconnected	4,862	5,380	6,567
Calls handled by Eligibility Officers	38,602	31,772	30,866
Average wait time per caller	1m 55s	2m 35s	2m 51s
Total calls answered within 2.5 min	72.46%	59.98%	58.32%

Number of clients qualifying for legal aid services

To qualify for Legal Aid Saskatchewan services, an individual must be financially eligible, have a legal problem that is covered by LAS guidelines, and the legal problem must have professional merit in the opinion of LAS.

LAS reports both the number of individuals applying and the number of LSNs (files) assigned, as a single applicant may have multiple LSNs. The number of individuals applying for services has remained stable over the past three years, as has the number of applicants who qualify for assistance. While LSN totals have declined, this change reflects adjustments to client file configuration practices rather than a reduction in service demand. Overall, workload levels have remained consistent, demonstrating continued demand for services and sustained organizational capacity. This data includes criminal, family and therapeutic court applications.

	2025-2026	2024-2025	2023-2024
Number of people who applied for full service	16,499	16,847	16,092
Number of LSNs created	21,069	24,389	23,793
Number of people qualified for full service	11,928	12,220	11,573

Percentage of clients speaking to a lawyer within 21 days of application approval

A variety of factors can impact the time it takes for a client to speak to a lawyer, such as lawyers' caseloads, staff vacancies, or missing or incomplete client paperwork. Family files are subject to the mandatory mediation process, which affects the number of days between a client's application and speaking with a lawyer. This metric does not include duty counsel service.

	2025-2026	2024-2025	2023-2024
All Clients	69%	67%	69%
Criminal & Therapeutic Clients	68%	70%	67%
Family Clients	69%	66%	75%

New full service files opened

LAS reports the number of LSNs (files) opened by staff lawyers and private bar lawyers, as well as court informations related to substantial charges when analyzing new full-service criminal files. An "information" is a formal document that outlines criminal charges and initiates or advances a court proceeding. Since this does not apply to family law files, the number of LSNs will continue to be used as the primary metric in those cases. The number of clients is also presented alongside the number of family LSNs.

Brydges, Duty Counsel Advice and Summary Advice: LSNs for Staff Lawyers & Private Bar

Duty Counsel Advice refers to immediate legal advice — provided either by phone or in person — to individuals who have been arrested or detained. This service is offered by a staff lawyer or through the Brydges service and is available regardless of the individual's financial status. The 2025-2026 fiscal year saw an increase in the number of LSNs opened by staff and private bar. This may be attributed to operational and efficiency improvements with LAS's Brydges service.

Champions for Access to Justice

The work we do to support our clients and improve the justice system for everyone is unmatched. We are dedicated to sharing our successes and strengthening community relationships to further enhance our services.

Community Partnerships

Engagement with other community stakeholders builds strong, trust-based relationships between organizations and the people seeking justice services. LAS takes pride in these community engagement opportunities.

- 2025 All Staff Conference: During LAS' annual CPD staff conference, our valued private bar partners were invited to join the educational sessions. This was first time in five decades this learning and networking opportunity was made available.
- 2025 Access to Justice Week (October 27 to November 2): For the 10th anniversary of #SKA2J, LAS hosted a free film screening at the Roxy theatre in Saskatoon. Two short films created by the First Nations University were featured: Waniska – an Awakening of Indigenous Knowledge and Economic Reconciliation. These films centered their themes around a deep understanding of reconciliation and meaningful access to justice.
- Battlefords Area Office and Onion Lake First Nation: Legal Aid Saskatchewan and Onion Lake First Nation have strengthened their collaborative partnership to support community-based justice and reintegration initiatives. Through ongoing coordination with the Onion Lake Justice Committee and Court Worker Program, Legal Aid Staff Lawyers are connected to culturally relevant release and reintegration options, including access to transitional housing trailers and the community's detoxification centre. Court workers proactively engage with LAS counsel to discuss sentencing alternatives and reintegration plans, helping to ensure that clients' circumstances and community supports are fully considered. The partnership also facilitates referrals to LAS for individuals facing serious criminal consequences, while providing direct access to the Justice Committee for consideration of sentencing circles and support with court applications. In addition, court workers assist community members with applications and navigation of the justice system, enhancing access to legal services and community-based supports.
- FASD and Gladue Report Training: LAS partnered with the FASD Network of Saskatchewan to provide specialized training for justice advocates assisting Indigenous clients. This training examined how FASD impacts brain functioning and behaviour and why traditional justice responses may not work for individuals with FASD. After reviewing strategies to reduce justice involvement, the training focused on the role of Gladue reports and restorative justice approaches, and how legal professionals can apply FASD- and Gladue-informed practices in their work.

- 3rd Annual Afrocentric Symposium: LAS was pleased to participate in the 3rd Annual Saskatchewan Afrocentric Symposium hosted by Truly Alive Youth and Family Foundation Inc. (TAYFFI) during Black History Month. The Afrocentric Symposium is a professional development and heritage education opportunity bringing together hundreds of community leaders, academics and Government officials from across the country to share insights and learn about the rich legacy and achievements of Black people throughout Canadian and Saskatchewan history. Staff Lawyers Chimezie Azuwoke and Jola Fagbemi were panelists for the “Building Trust with Communities Towards Public Safety and Social Harmony” discussion. It was an in-depth conversation with fellow participants Saskatoon Police Chief Cameron McBride, Amy Agar and Amy Wood from the Parole Board of Canada, and entrepreneur and business owner Petrice Dyer.
- 4th Annual Black History Month Gala & Awards Night: Black History Month wrapped up with a celebratory gala hosted by TAYFFI on February 27th. LAS employees again gathered to celebrate with other community groups and colleagues. The evening finished with a surprise award being presented to Legal Aid Saskatchewan for Outstanding Intersectoral Partnership!
- University of Saskatchewan’s College of Law panel “Careers for the Public Benefit - Public Service and Advocacy Roles”: LAS’s Practice Management Counsel Joanne Khan joined a panel of lawyers working in public service, while Articling Student Amy Bjarnason connected with students interested in LAS’s articling program. The event provided an opportunity to highlight career pathways in public service and the important role legal aid plays in improving access to justice. Joanne shared her experience working with criminal and family law clients and discussed key organizational initiatives, including the expansion of immigration and refugee legal services and Legal Aid Saskatchewan’s ongoing commitment to reconciliation and advancing the Truth and Reconciliation Commission’s Calls to Action.

Saskatoon Indigenous Provincial Court

The Provincial Court continues to lead the development of the Saskatoon Indigenous Provincial Court (SIPC) through an Elder-guided, collaborative design process involving Indigenous communities, service providers, victim supports and justice partners. Legal Aid Saskatchewan is pleased to be part of these essential discussions and the foundations of this initiative.

SIPC aims to address the overrepresentation of Indigenous peoples in the justice system by providing a culturally grounded, restorative and holistic approach to justice. Throughout the year, engagement activities focused on gathering input to inform the court’s structure, processes and services. This collaborative work will support the launch of a pilot Indigenous Court in Saskatoon, currently anticipated for the summer of 2026.

Appellate Work

Legal Aid Saskatchewan Staff Lawyers and private bar partners advocate for clients by navigating complex matters before the Courts. During the 2025-2026 fiscal year, LAS had 24 appeal files approved.

The following operational metrics support our commitment to serving as champions for access to justice.

Gladue Submissions

Legal Aid Saskatchewan's Gladue Services Coordinator continues the educational outreach about the submission guide and Gladue rights. While the use of the Guide has increased, we must acknowledge challenges, including the limited number of Gladue writers, the cost per report, and the amount of time invested.

Number of Gladue Submissions used by LAS Staff Lawyers: 76

Number of Gladue Reports: 11

"I can say that the Guide has been very well received by our Provincial Court Judges, and that in several cases the Guide made a measurable difference in the outcome the client received. By way of example, the Guide was the reason I was able to obtain non-custodial sentences for two cases, and in another case the Guide was the reason the client was released at his show cause hearing." – LAS Staff Lawyer on the impact of the Gladue Submission Guide

"I entered Gladue submissions for eight Indigenous clients. I argued for an absolute discharge and not probation for one of my youth clients. The Guide really helped bring forward the client's circumstances." – LAS Staff Lawyer on the impact of the Gladue Submission Guide

"The guides have been very helpful. I have had multiple show cause hearings that were close and the Guide may have been the deciding factor in their release, including one for an Indigenous youth. Our Crowns seem to take the guides into consideration when giving their sentencing positions." – LAS Staff Lawyer on the impact of the Gladue Submission Guide

Purpose-Driven Teams Producing Exceptional Outcomes

Legal Aid Saskatchewan commits to celebrating the successes of our employees and providing growth opportunities for our team. We support the well-being of our staff, knowing this has a positive effect on our clients.

Saskatchewan's Top Employer

For the third year in a row, Legal Aid Saskatchewan was recognized as a Saskatchewan Top Employer for 2026! Saskatchewan's Top Employers is a special designation bestowed upon Saskatchewan employers that lead their industries in offering exceptional places to work. Employers are reviewed on several criteria, including workplace culture and atmosphere, benefits and time off, training and skills development and community involvement

"This remarkable achievement highlights the dedication, talent and hard work of our entire team. Their unwavering commitment and contributions have made this recognition possible, and I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together." – Jayne Mallin, CEO

"This recognition reflects our commitment to being a workplace that values its people, offers strong benefits, and fosters a positive work culture. Being consistently recognized as a Saskatchewan Top Employer helps strengthen employee pride and loyalty to the organization and promote a culture of excellence." – Olga Sadikova, Director of People and Culture

Congratulations to Employees' Dedicated Service!

Congratulations to the employees who were presented with service awards during Legal Aid Saskatchewan's 2025 annual all staff conference in Saskatoon!

Long Serving Employee Appointed King's Counsel

Robert Grimsrud, LAS VP of Legal Services and General Counsel, was appointed King Counsel in December 2025. As a 25-year employee of LAS, Robert has served in many capacities, including Legal Director and Staff Lawyer.

"As a staff lawyer and Legal Director, I experienced many different outcomes for clients, from winning cases to losing cases, to working hard to resolve a case to the benefit of the client. Often the highlights I recall and am proud of centre around the clients and their continued trust in my advice even when hard choices had to be made. In my current role as Vice President of Legal Services and General Counsel, I am proud to be part of a team that has started to move the organization in the direction needed for the future." – Robert Grimsrud, K.C. on his accomplished career

Student Programming

This was the second year for the Rural and Regional Legal Externship program offered by the University of Saskatchewan, in partnership with Legal Aid Saskatchewan and Public Prosecutions. The purpose of this program is to provide students with exposure to family law and criminal law practices in rural and remote communities. LAS was pleased to welcome two students through this program in the Winter semester, one at Battlefords Area Office and one at Prince Albert Area Office.

The 2025-2026 fiscal year is the first for the Advanced Child Protection Externship (ACPE), an experiential opportunity made possible by partnership between FSIN and the College of Law's 2023 Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for dedicated research and education surrounding child protection. Legal Aid Saskatchewan was pleased to welcome two students through this externship, one in the fall semester and one in the winter, both working with the family Law and Mediation Services team at the Saskatoon Rural Area Office.

The summer student program welcomed three students keen to enter the legal profession. These students worked with our Prince Albert, Regina Rural and Head Office teams during the summer of 2025.

Legal Aid Saskatchewan's articling student program, which provides broad hands-on experience for students-at-law who are interested in criminal and family law, brought in eight dedicated students work with our Staff Lawyers, admins and clients throughout 2025-2026. These young professionals joined our Head Office, Regina Rural, Saskatoon City, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon Rural, Prince Albert, and Yorkton Area Offices.

The following operational metrics support our commitment to fostering purpose-driven teams producing exceptional outcomes.

Accountable and Responsive Stewards

LAS continuously evaluates operations, embraces innovation, and makes data-informed decisions to improve outcomes for our clients and ensure effective resource management.

IT Security & Modernization Remains Top of Mind

Legal Aid Saskatchewan continued to enhance staff connectivity, mobility and secure remote access through several key technology initiatives during the year. Four major projects were implemented: TitanFile, a cloud-based file sharing and collaboration platform; Pre-Login VPN, enabling fully remote, zero-touch deployment of computer systems; Windows Hello for Business, supporting secure passwordless authentication through biometric login; and a Web Application Proxy for LAIN, providing secure access through conditional access controls. These investments support a flexible and secure work environment for staff across the province. Mobile technology adoption remains strong, with 207 LAS-issued laptops in use, 113 staff utilizing personal devices to access LAS Microsoft 365 applications, and 24 LAS-managed smartphones supporting mobile and remote work capabilities.

Information technology security, data protection, and business improvement remained key priorities for Legal Aid Saskatchewan throughout the year, with the successful implementation of multifactor authentication and the continued expansion of cloud-based solutions, including innovative SharePoint pilot projects aimed at improving collaboration and efficiency. Ongoing staff cyber security training, with a particular focus on phishing awareness and prevention, has helped strengthen organizational resilience, and no major security incidents were reported during the reporting period.

Expanding the Data Framework

LAS continues to strengthen its data framework to support more effective short- and long-term budgeting, capacity planning and organizational transparency. Robust operational metrics provide the foundation for data-informed decision-making, helping optimize performance, enhance accountability and ensure progress toward strategic objectives. Reliable data also strengthens confidence among funders and stakeholders, reflecting the growing expectation that government-funded organizations demonstrate evidence-based decision-making at all levels.

A significant milestone in 2025–2026 was the hiring of a Data/Business Analyst, which accelerated efforts to improve data collection and analysis. Through this work, LAS identified throughput levels across individual Area Offices, tracked common workflow patterns and inter-office workload distribution, and pinpointed high-priority locations for future hiring. Enhanced data collection has also improved the transparency and traceability of organizational decisions.

These insights have provided a deeper understanding of internal processes, variations in office-level operations, and workload distribution across both offices and individual lawyers. Moving forward, LAS expects improved data capabilities to drive ongoing process refinement, support the development of expanded services, and enable more efficient and balanced allocation of resources across the organization.

The following operational metric supports our commitment to the role of accountable and responsive stewards.

Number of risks ranked medium or high without mitigation strategy

A risk registry of all internal and external threats to financial, operational, legal and reputational health of the organization is presented quarterly to the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission. During the 2025-2026 fiscal year, LAS documented 12 risks in the risk registry and reported these to the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission during each Commission meeting. Of these 12 risks, all include a current and future mitigation strategy.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the Commission's financial statements. This responsibility includes maintaining the integrity and objectivity of the Commission's financial records and presenting the financial statements in accordance with Canadian Public Sector Accounting standards.

Management maintains an appropriate system of internal controls, including policies and procedures, which provide reasonable assurance that the Commission's assets are safeguarded and that the financial records are relevant and reliable.

To ensure management meets its responsibilities for financial reporting and internal control, the members of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission discuss audit and reporting matters with representatives of management at regular meetings.

The members of the Commission have also reviewed the financial statements with representatives of management. The members have approved in principle the Commission's financial statements for the year end March 31, 2026.

The Provincial Auditor of Saskatchewan conducts an independent audit of the financial statements. Their examination is conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards and includes tests and other procedures which allow them to report on the fairness of the financial statements. The Provincial Auditor's Report outlines the scope of the audit and the opinion.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the Year Ended March 31, 2026

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To: The Members of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2026, and the statement of operations and changes in accumulated surplus, statement of changes in net financial assets, and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission as at March 31, 2026, and the results of its operations, changes in net financial assets, and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards for Treasury Board's approval, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control identified during the audit.

THE SASKATCHEWAN LEGAL AID COMMISSION
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2026

The Legal Aid Act came into force on September 1, 1983 by Order in Council 1275/83 and continued the Saskatchewan Community Legal Services Commission as a body corporate under the name of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission (Commission). The purpose of the Commission is to provide legal services to persons and organizations for criminal and civil matters where those persons and organizations are financially unable to secure those services from their own resources.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian Public Sector Accounting Standards published by the Chartered Professional Accountants Canada (CPA Canada). A statement of remeasurement gains and losses has not been presented in these financial statements because all financial instruments are measured at amortized costs. The following policies are considered significant:

a) Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized in the period in which the transactions or events occurred that give rise to the revenues and when collection is reasonably assured. All revenues are recorded on an accrual basis.

Provincial Government appropriations are recurring and recognized in the period the transfer is authorized, and any eligibility criteria is met.

Other revenue is recurring and comprised of client contributions, cost recoveries, interest and miscellaneous receipts.

Ministry of Justice and Attorney General of Canada is funding for immigration and refugee expenses.

Externally restricted inflows are deferred contribution when restrictions are placed on their use by the contributor and are recognized as revenue when used for their specific purposes. These include recurring contributions from Law Foundation of Saskatchewan Legal Aid Endowment Fund Trust and Law Foundation of Saskatchewan.

b) Expenses

Expenses are reported on an accrual basis. The costs of services incurred during the year are expensed.

c) Provision of Legal Services Expense

Provision of legal services expense include amounts billed by private bar lawyers to the Commission and an estimate of amounts of services performed by lawyers but not yet billed to the Commission.

d) Tangible Capital Assets

Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost, which includes amounts that are directly related to the acquisition, design, construction, development, improvement, or betterment of the asset. Normal repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. The tangible capital assets are reduced annually by an amount representing the consumed cost of the asset calculated on a straight line basis as follows:

Office Equipment and Furniture	7 years
Legal Aid Information Network (LAIN)
Development Costs	3 years

Tangible capital assets are written down when conditions indicate that they no longer contribute to the Commission's ability to provide services, or when the value of future economic benefits associated with the tangible capital assets is less than their net book value. The net write-downs (if any) are accounted for as expense in the Statement of Operations.

e) Financial Instruments

All financial instruments are measured at fair value upon initial recognition. Cash is measured at fair value. Accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities are measured at amortized cost. The Commission does not have any embedded derivatives in host contracts.

f) New accounting standards not yet in effect

New Canadian public sector accounting standards are not yet in effect for governments and has not been applied in preparing these financial statements. The Commission plans to adopt the new standards on the effective date and is currently analysing the impact these will have on these financial statements.

The following standards will become effective as follows:

- The Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting in the Public Sector (effective fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2026).
- PS 1202 – Financial Statement Presentation (effective fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2026).

2. Financial Risk Management

The management of the Commission mitigates the risks associated with financial instruments with regular reporting to the members of the Commission.

Credit Risk:

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a transaction will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The Commission's exposure to credit risk is from the potential of non-payment of grants or accounts receivable. The credit risk on the receivables is not material as most grants are received from the provincial appropriations and the other receivables are comprised of small amounts from contributions from clients.

The aging of accounts receivable is detailed as follows:

	2026	2025
Current	$ 152,251	$ 47,307
30 – 60 days	---	---
61 – 90 days	---	---

Greater than 90 days
Accounts receivable

	$ 152,251	$ 47,307

Liquidity Risk:

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Commission is unable to meet its financial commitments as they become due. The Commission manages the liquidity risk by managing expenses to operate within the annual appropriation amount it receives from the Saskatchewan Ministry of Justice and Attorney General.

Accounts Payable Maturity Analysis is detailed as follows:

	2026	2025
Current	$ 228,199	$ 180,720
30 – 60 days	---	---
61 – 90 days	---	---
Greater than 90 days	---	---
Accounts payable	$ 228,199	$ 180,720

Market Risk:

Market risk represents the potential for loss from changes in the value of financial instruments due to changes in the market conditions. The Commission does not have any exposure to market risk.

3. Capital Management

The Commission's objective when managing its accumulated surplus is to ensure adequate resources exist to support the operations and growth strategies of the Commission.

The Commission obtains its funding from provincial appropriations through the Ministry of Justice and Attorney General. The Commission does not have any debt.

The Commission monitors and assesses its financial performance by a monthly variance analysis of actual and yearly projections to approved budget. The budget and variance analysis is approved by the members of the Commission. The management of the Commission also provide an appropriation forecast to the Ministry of Justice and Attorney General.

4. Pension Contribution

The Commission participates in a defined contribution pension plan with Public Employees Pension Plan (PEPP) for the benefit of its employees. The Commission's financial obligation is limited to making regular payments to match the amounts contributed by the employees for current service.

The Commission's annual pension expense included in salaries and benefits for 2026 amounted to $1,373,736 (2025 - $1,238,488).

5. Tangible Capital Assets

Tangible capital assets are comprised of the following amounts:

	Office Equipment and Furniture	LAIN Development Costs	2026 Total	2025 Total
Opening cost	$ 281,543	$ 717,771	$ 999,314	$ 999,314
Additions during the year	---	---	---	---
Disposals during the year	---	---	---	---

Opening Accumulated
Amortization	241,946	717,771	959,717	949,820
Amortization during the year	9,897	---	9,897	9,897
Disposal during the year	---	---	---	---
Closing Accumulated
Amortization	251,843	717,771	969,614	959,717
Net book value of
Tangible capital assets	$ 29,700	$ ---	$ 29,700	$ 39,597

The Commission did not have any write downs of tangible capital assets during the year.

6. Deferred Contributions and Grants

Deferred operating contributions represent externally restricted grants and contributions for which the related expense has not been incurred.

	2026	2025
Balance, beginning of year	$ 236,340	$ ---
Add: Grant contributions received or receivable in the year
Law Foundation of Saskatchewan	79,940	281,886
Law Foundation of Saskatchewan Legal Aid
Endowment Fund Trust	85,848	90,454
Law Society of Saskatchewan	---	10,000
Less: Amounts recognized as revenue in the year	(180,574)	(146,000)
Balance, end of year	$ 221,554	$ 236,340

The Law Foundation of Saskatchewan approved grants during the year to Legal Aid Commission were $nil (2025 - $825,000). The Commission recognized $72,997 (2025 - $44,933) as a receivable from the Foundation for expenses incurred for the $270,000 Therapeutic Court Navigator grant approved in 2023/24.

The Law Foundation of Saskatchewan Endowment Fund Trust approved grants totalling $88,000 (2025 - $92,700). During the year, the Trust made a payment of $32,700 (2025 - $91,000) to the Commission for these grants. The Commission recognized $53,148 (2025 - $nil) as receivable from The Law Foundation of Saskatchewan Endowment Fund Trust.

7. Measurement Uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Areas where estimates are made include accrued private solicitors' fees and the related provision of legal service expense, amortization of tangible capital assets and non-vesting sick leave benefits.

These estimates are based on the best information available at the time of preparation of the financial statements and are reviewed periodically to reflect new information as it becomes available. Measurement uncertainty exists in these financial statements and actual results could differ from those estimates.

The provision for services provided by members of the private bar that have not been billed on outstanding appointments is estimated at year end using a method that incorporates historical average costs and estimated time frames to complete similar cases. In addition to the liability for services provided to March 31, 2026, the Commission estimates $881,115 (2025 - $837,886) will be incurred on approximately 2,892 (2025 - 3,361) outstanding appointments issued to the private bar over and above both the billings paid to date and work performed but not yet billed.

8. Related Party Transactions

These financial statements include transactions with related parties. The Commission is related to all Saskatchewan Crown Agencies such as ministries, corporations, boards, and commissions under the common control of the Government of Saskatchewan, as well as its key management personnel and their close family members. Additionally, the Commission is related to organizations where they have key management personnel and/or their close family members in common. Transactions with these related parties are in the normal course of operations and are settled on normal trade terms.

Facilities, vehicle rentals, office supplies, and miscellaneous office services are acquired from a related party. These transactions are recorded at agreed upon rates and settled on normal trade terms. Other operating transactions with related parties are settled at prevailing market prices under normal trade terms. These transactions and amounts outstanding at year end are as follows:

	2026	2025
Expenses	$ 2,571,155	$ 2,471,332
Accounts payable	59,593	38,753
Accounts receivable	---	---

Each year, the Commission receives 98% (2025 - 98%) of its operating revenue as a government transfer from the Saskatchewan Ministry of Justice and Attorney General recorded as appropriations, and 2% (2025 - 2%) from grants and other sources. The Commission depends on funding from these sources for the continuance of its operations.

During the year the Commission received $41,604,000 from the Ministry of Justice and Attorney General (2025 - $36,873,000).

In addition, the Commission pays Provincial Sales Tax on all its taxable purchases. The Commission also received transcripts services without charge from the Ministry of Justice and Attorney General.

During the year, the Commission made payments of $127,242 (2025 - $127,242) to the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission Benefit Plan Surplus Fund (Fund) that is set up under the collective bargaining agreement between C.U.P.E. Local 1949 (Union) and the Commission. As outlined in the agreement, the Fund is jointly administered by the Commission and the Union through the Labour Management Relations Committee. The Commission provides the Fund with day-to-day administration. The intent of the Fund is to cover increased premium costs of the extended health care benefits for members of C.U.P.E. Local 1949. The increased premium costs are initially paid by the Commission, and for the year the Fund reimbursed the Commission $259,005 (2025 - $254,023) for the increased premium costs. The Fund had a balance of $416,608 (2025 - $374,526) which is not included in the Commission's statement of financial position.

Other transactions with related parties and amounts due to or from them are described separately in these financial statements and the notes thereto.

9. The Law Foundation of Saskatchewan Legal Aid Endowment Fund Trust

A Trust Deed exists between the Law Foundation of Saskatchewan and the Trustees of The Law Foundation of Saskatchewan Legal Aid Endowment Fund Trust (Trust). The Trust was established with an endowment to assist in the Commission's mandate by:

- a) improving access to justice for persons whose own financial resources are inadequate;
- b) enhancing the ability of all Commission employees to provide legal aid service to clients, including education, research and the acquisition of research, teaching and library materials by the Commission;
- c) providing funds for research in legal and social areas related to legal aid and access to justice; and
- d) assisting otherwise in the Commission's mandate in ways not traditionally covered by government funding, and with particular emphasis on novel or innovative programs or delivery methods.

An endowment amount of $2,100,000 (2025 - $2,100,000) has been provided to the Trust and only the net income from the Trust is available for the beneficiaries. The transactions and amounts in the Commission's financial statements related to activities of the Trust at year end are as follows:

	2026	2025
Grants	$ 47,485	$ 64,114
Deferred contributions	11,555	26,340

The Trust has five trustees, three of which are members of the Commission. They include:

- The Chair of The Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission
- A commissioner of The Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission, appointed by the Law Society of Saskatchewan
- A commissioner of The Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission, appointed by the Minister of Justice (Saskatchewan)

The Commission has authorized the utilization of its staff as may be reasonably required from time to time to provide administrative support to the Trust at no fee.

10. Budget

These amounts represent the operating budget approved June 2025 by members of the Saskatchewan Legal Aid Commission.

11. Contractual Rights

The Commission has entered into an agreement with the Federal Government (Canada) under which Canada grants a contribution to the Commission for the eligible expenditures directly related to or reasonably attributable to providing legal aid in immigration and refugee matters, through Canada's Legal Aid Program. The agreement took effect on November 17, 2025, and terminates on March 31, 2028, and Canada's contributions will be based on the Commission's performance of its obligations under this agreement. Canada's contribution for immigration and refugee legal aid for the payment of the eligible expenses incurred will be up to the following amounts:

2027: $1,310,000

2028: $1,200,000

12. Federal and Strategic Priorities

The Commission has allocated budget to meet the objectives of federal funding for criminal legal aid expenditures by providing increased legal representation, advice, and information to the Saskatchewan communities regarding the justice system. This allocation will also support the implementation of the Commission's strategic priorities set out in the Strategic Plan.

Glossary

Application: A formal written request for legal assistance. Related legal matters mentioned at the time of application are included on one application. Separate applications are counted for criminal, family, and to a very minor extent, civil and provincial offence matters.

Brydges Service: Refers to Duty Counsel Advice provided by telephone to detained persons by contract lawyers. This service is available to all individuals detained for a crime regardless of range of service or their eligibility for the full services of LAS.

Court Info: A formal document outlining criminal charges that initiates or continues a court proceeding.

Duty Counsel Advice: Immediate advice, by telephone or in person, to arrested or detained persons, irrespective of financial status, provided by a LAS staff lawyer or most likely through the Brydges Service.

Duty Counsel Service: Legal services provided by a lawyer to in-custody individuals where the person has not applied in writing requesting legal aid representation. Duty Counsel Service is provided irrespective of financial status and consists of either the entry of a guilty plea or a show cause hearing. If the client's case is not resolved, they are encouraged to apply for full-service representation.

Family Matters: Refers to proceedings related to divorce, separation, support, custody/access and other matters of a family law nature. These matters also include child protection proceedings.

Federal Criminal Matters (Adults): Refers to matters under the Criminal Code of Canada, Narcotic Control Act, Food and Drug Act or other Federal Statutes, if the proceedings are by way of indictment; or, if upon conviction and sentence, there is a likelihood of imprisonment or loss of livelihood.

Federal Criminal Matters (Youth) refers to matters under the Youth Criminal Justice Act.

Financial Eligibility: Refers to the process and decision made regarding an application based on the applicant's financial information about income, dependents; and assets; the decision can be in favour of or against eligibility.

LSN (Legal Services Number): Each legal aid file is assigned a unique legal services number (LSN).

Mediation: Effective July 1, 2022, family law matters that come to court in Saskatchewan are required to attempt a family dispute resolution process by the close of pleadings before they may continue with any further court proceedings. Family dispute resolution includes mediation, collaborative law processes, family arbitration, or the use of a parenting coordinator where there is an existing order or agreement.

Opened Files: These are applications that have been approved on or after April 1, 2025 and as of March 31, 2026 and have been worked on by a lawyer during this time frame. As of March 31, 2026, these files may be active, completed or abandoned by the client.

Therapeutic Courts: Saskatchewan's Provincial Court has different Therapeutic Courts to address social and personal issues underlying or causing a person's criminal behaviour, such as addictions and mental illness. This includes Domestic Violence Court, Drug Treatment Court and Mental Health Court.
